External Notice (CCBOH Website)

Cuyahoga County Board of Health seeking Informatician to lead CCBH in data collection and reporting through development and administration of databases and reporting mechanisms in Parma, OH. Will participate in planning activities to advance informatics infrastructure. Will lead database and data systems creation and maintenance and develop strategies to optimize statistical efficiency. Will expand collection capabilities through technological updates. Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, Programming, Informatics, Electronics Engineering or related field (foreign degree or equivalency accepted) with three years of programming, database development/administration experience, which must include experience in relational data (e.g. entity and identity framework), development languages and tools (ASP.NET, C#, Python, VB.net, Visual Studio, JavaScript, JQuery, PHP), data search and export tools, and Microsoft Office Suite. Send cover letter and resume to CCBH, Attn: A. Dunham, 5550 Venture Drive, Parma, OH 44130.