216 TEENS

THE SCOOP

CUYAHOGA COUNTY'S TEEN BIRTH RATE is higher than statewide and national rates. Some school districts in Cuyahoga County have teen birth rates of almost DOUBLE the national average.

TEEN BIRTH AND STD RATES among black teens in Cuyahoga County are significantly higher than those for white teens.

LGBTQ YOUTH throughout Cuyahoga County also experience higher rates of teen birth and STD.

216TEENS IS HERE TO HELP

COMMUNITY EDUCATION
By partnering with community organizations, we are able to bring sexual health education to youth in a variety of settings.

TARGETED SCHOOLS
216Teens is in local schools providing comprehensive, medically-accurate, age-appropriate sexual health education for high school and middle school students.

216TEENS.ORG
We know that teens rely on their phones, social media, and the internet when they need answers to questions. We're meeting teens where they are — online. 216Teens offers a wealth of sexual health information, complete with a glossary, healthcare finder, and a collection of videos, quizzes and polls.

HOW TO GET INVOLVED
